

Plumstead Students Excel at Speech Meet

On March 22, students from the Peace Valley Campus of Plumstead Christian School competed in the ACSI Eastern Pennsylvania Regional Speech Meet. The competition was held at Lehigh Christian Academy in Allentown, Pennsylvania. Eight area Christian schools competed in categories such as Bible memorization, Poetry, Fables & Folklore, Patriotic Oration, and Dramatic Bible Prose. Students were awarded ribbons based on the scores they earned from two separate judges, and the ribbon categories were Superior, Excellent, Good, and Participant. Of the twenty-seven students who represented Plumstead, twenty scored Superior, five scored Excellent, and two scored Good. Two of Plumstead's students, second-grader Noah Spratt and third-grader Ben Weaver, earned perfect scores! Congratulations to all of the students who worked hard to prepare for this event.

Students who earned Superior ribbons: Rachel Zilligen, Tess Willett, Olivia Mercure, Julia Caracappa, Paul Caracappa, Noah Spratt, Ethan Edwards, Ben Weaver, Ethan Engelman, Lauren Applegate, Mathew Aiello, Kristen Weeder, Alex Hartzel, Andrew Greiner, Luke Brautigam, Ellie Gresham, Jacqueline Vergis, Courtney Hughes, Brendan Provan, Christina Hanson

Students who earned Excellent ribbons: Rachel Mandia, Anthony Quinones, J.T. Reber, Joshua Murr, Jen Murray

Students who earned Good ribbons: Tyler Foote, Tommy Sensing