

A Blast from the Past for Third Grade Students

On Wednesday, May 5th, the third grade classes made their annual trip to the historical section of Philadelphia. This trip is an introduction to their social studies unit, "Communities over Time."

During the trip students went to classes presented by the Independence Park Institute about Benjamin Franklin and the Liberty Bell. After this they ate a picnic lunch in front of Independence Hall and finished their trip with a tour of the Liberty Bell.

